

A stylized tropical landscape illustration. In the top left, a large, textured orange sun is positioned. The background features a light green sky with a large, pale yellow circular shape. The middle ground is dominated by three palm trees with textured, golden-brown fronds and trunks. Below the trees, there are rolling hills in shades of brown and green. In the foreground, a blue body of water is shown with a small sailboat having a red sail and a white hull. The overall style is flat and graphic with a textured, stippled effect on the palm trees and sun.
