Piazza Navona, Rome (Italy)

SICIS

The Lifestyle Suites Rome is a modern Boutique Hotel located in the heart of ancient Rome, exactly in "Piazza Navona". It rises in a majestic and ancient noble palace that dates back to 1440 A.D. overlooking Bernini's Fountain of the Four Rivers and Borromini's Church of St. Agnes in Agony. On the very same spot where the hotel is located, there used to be the Domitian Stadium from the Ancient Roman Empire, hints of which are still visible in the remaining columns along the stairway to the Lifestyle Suites' reception. This project was born in 2015 in collaboration with Cultural Heritage and the Municipality of Rome, in which they preserved the historical significance of the building, combining it with the comfort and luxury of modern times.

Thirteen suites, thirteen projects, each suite different from the others, with its own name and style. The furniture is unique and designed directly by co-founder & architect Giovanna Guarino. Produced by local craftsmen and specialized suppliers such as SICIS.

The brand-new rooftop bar is the newest addition to the hotel, serving fine wines and cocktails as well as a selection of Italian & continental finger-food & snacks. The bar services the breathtaking rooftop terrace with the view of the "Piazza Navona", the Four Rivers Fountain, and the Church of St. Agnes.

José Luis Mesas, a famous artist of Mallorcan origin and a disciple of Miró, decided to create his first work in Italy by painting a mural on the wall of the new Cocktail Bar. This artistic collaboration is born with architect Giovanna Guarino, who designs the splendid cocktail bar in the same environment, made with precious materials and high technology provided by SICIS that blend perfectly with Mesas' artwork. Creating a unique and elegant atmosphere that is unparalleled in the city.
