WEDDINGS AND HONEYMOONS IN ITALY

After the stress of wedmin, there is no better place to unwind and rejuvenate than the relaxation hub that is the Palazzo Ducale Venturi. Lounge by the pool with a book, trial an essential oil massage, sample wine in the orange grove or keep your mind and body in check with their well-equipped gym and yoga classes in the garden. After heating up outside, our favourite thing to do was visit the cryotherapy chamber, a high-tech treatment that operates at -190° for extensive health benefits, trust me, it's the best way to ensure you're as chilled as can be for your big day!

Apulia was the perfect location for a gorgeous getaway from the hustle and bustle of everyday life and a haven of treats for your senses. Throughout my time exploring Palazzo Ducale Venturi I was amazed to find boundless new stunning backdrops among the grounds for your special day. There is no more apt location for you to say 'I do' than in this Italian treasure!

PARTY AT THE PALAZZO

Look no further for your dream Mediterranean wedding experience than the Palazzo Ducale Venturi's unforgettable three-day destination wedding package. All based in the enchanting region of Salento, the boutique hotel is offering engaged couples the chance to celebrate love in all its expressions. With a welcome reception at a nearby ancient castle, a stunning wedding day at the palazzo and a pizza and pool party to round off the celebrations, this is the perfect package to create life-long memories for you and your loved ones!

The first part of your package will be a welcome cocktail party at the medieval castle, Castello di Casamassella, offering you the perfect opportunity to reunite and catch up with friends and family as you look forward to the festivities that await you. With unlimited drinks and delicious food amongst striking Italian architecture and gardens, can you think of a better start to your wedding celebrations?

After a peaceful rest at the hotel knowing all your guests are settled, you can enjoy constant bubbles and five-star service as you prepare for your ceremony at the Palazzo itself. Newlyweds will be invited to the Ducale suite, which features direct access to the pool and gardens and romantic frescoes to enjoy some time as a couple before your ceremony. Encased in a shroud of fragrant citrus trees you will be escorted through the decadent rose-covered archway, my favourite location at the palace, to share your vows in front of an ancient stone fountain, a romantic and magical way to start married life. Following your ceremony, you will all be taken to Castello al Borgo in Alessano to enjoy a traditional Italian meal and dance the night away with your true love.

Post-wedding, the hotel team offer a relaxed pizza pool party to recover and catch up on the events from the night before. Make special memories as you craft your own pizzas with the help of a delicious cocktail in hand by the outdoor saltwater pool.

Of course you and your loved ones will be taken care of within the Palazzo Ducale Venturi's 20 luxury bedrooms, giving you a base for your plans over the trip and the opportunity to extend your adventures and start your honeymoon in style at this Italian delight.
