

VALCASTELLO

DOLOMITES MOUNTAIN CHATEAU & POLO CLUB

Welcome to Valcastello

This enchanting property, built in 1850 on the ruins of an ancient castle, sits in a private 5 hectare estate flanking the verdant woods of Italian South Tyrol, offering magnificent views of the famous Dolomites mountain range.

The mansion still embodies an exclusive Polo Club with suites, the laid-back feel of a sporting club, the faded grandeur of a historic chateau and the bespoke service and alpine location of a ski chalet.

Valcastello Chalet & Polo Club nestles in the heart of the 3 Peaks Dolomites Ski Area, Unesco World Heritage, close to the 2026 Olympic slopes of Cortina d'Ampezzo.

This area has been the stage for international movies such as 007 For Your Eyes Only, Cliffhanger and the Pink Panther.

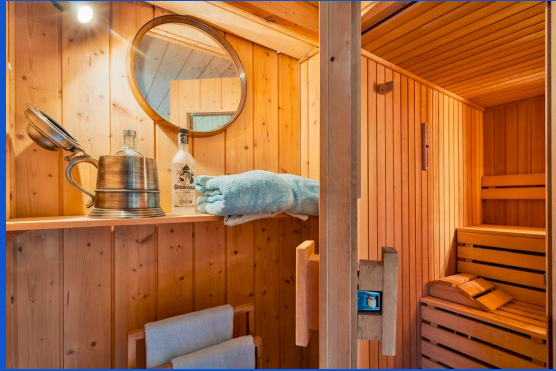

Valcastello Chalet & Polo Club is comprised of 3 expansive luxury double bedroom suites for 8 guests.

These suites range in size from 60 to 100 meters to accommodate 8 guests.

The suites

Valcastello Chalet, has 3 stately suites spread over two floors. The suites range in size from 60 to 100 sq. metres (645 -1076 sq.foot) and feature spacious beds and separate living room areas bestowing wonderful alpine views.

Valcastello, thanks to its breathtaking panoramic "Imperial" views of the Sexten Dolomites, has long been frequented by members of the European aristocracy, including The Hapsburgs and the Kings of Italy using the Chalet as a Base Camp to explore the Dolomites peaks.

All suites have spacious en-suite bathrooms and other state-of-the-art facilities include LCD TV screens and Wi-Fi.

Pink Suite 100 mq (1.076 sq.ft)

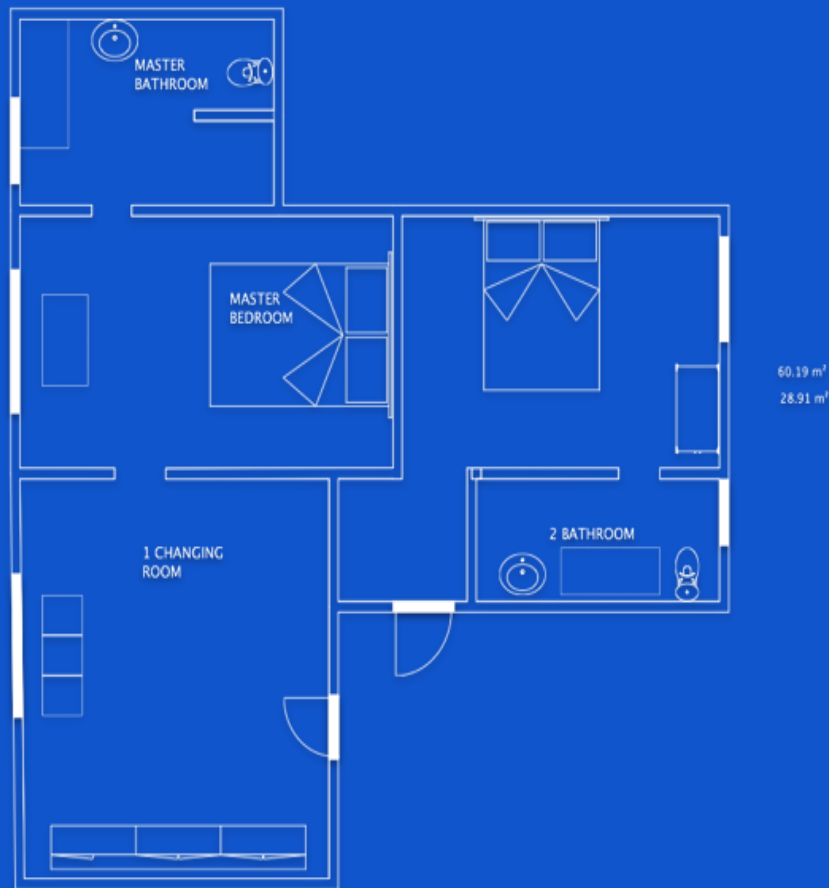

The Pink Suite is the largest suite and its first-floor location offers far-reaching views across the Dolomites.

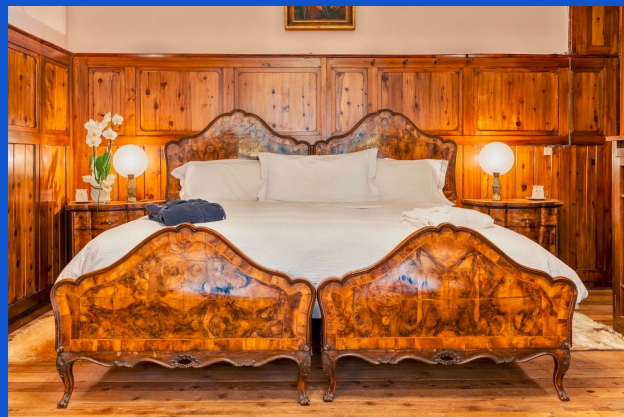

The bedroom features walnut wood-paneled walls and light wooden floorboards. The bed's antique headboard is carved from mahogany wood and elegant chandeliers hang from the suite's lofty ceiling.

A further smaller bedroom (with its own entrance) can accommodate friends or children and benefits from a further en-suite bathroom, which may also be used by the couple who requires separate wash facilities.

This suite consists of:

- 1 master bedroom
- 1 double bedroom
- 1 living room
- 2 bathrooms

Red Suite - 60 mq (645 sq.ft)

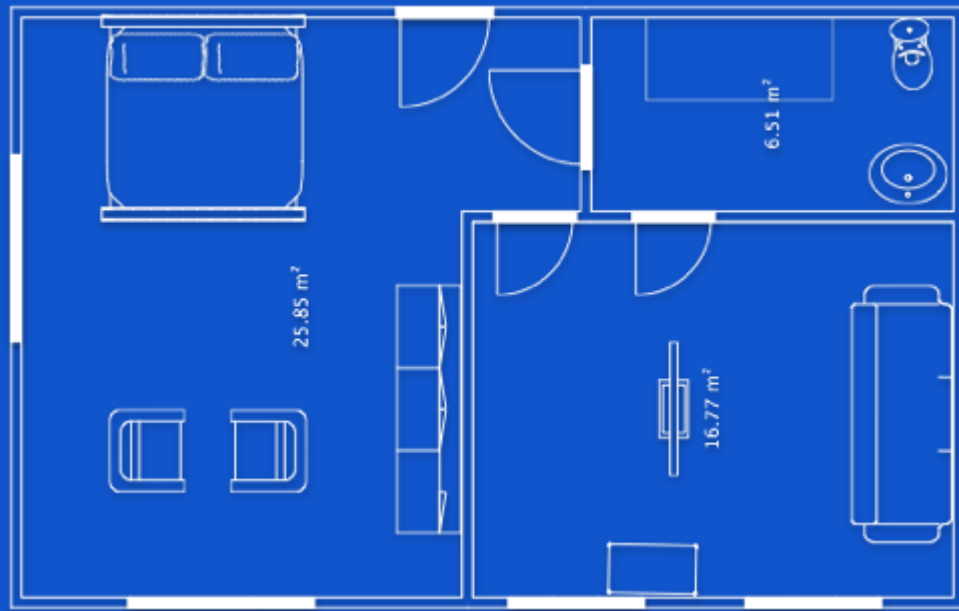

The Red Suite, on the first floor, is our most prestigious stately room, having formed the royal apartments of Italy's King Victor Emmanuel III and Queen Margherita in the 1930s. A secret passageway provided the royal couple with an emergency escape route.

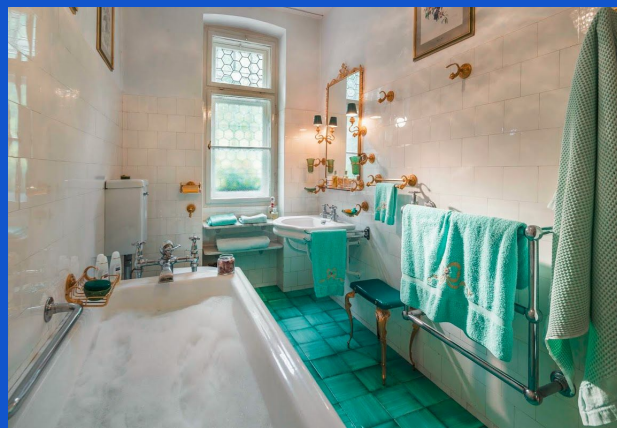

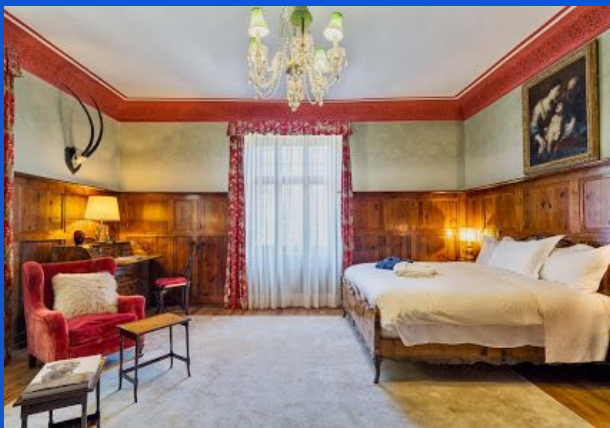

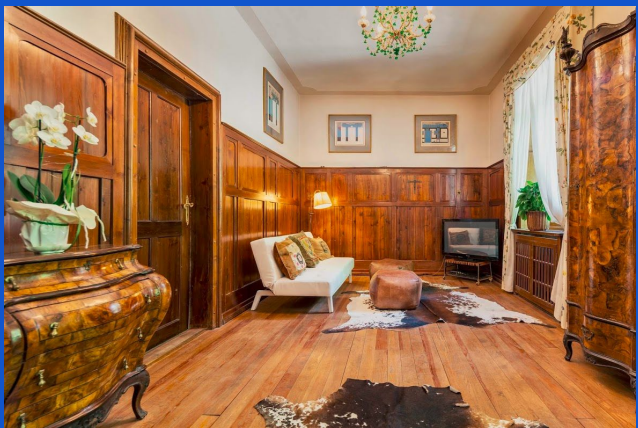

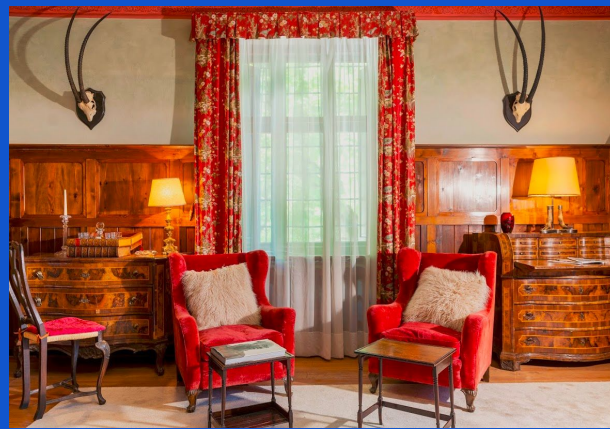

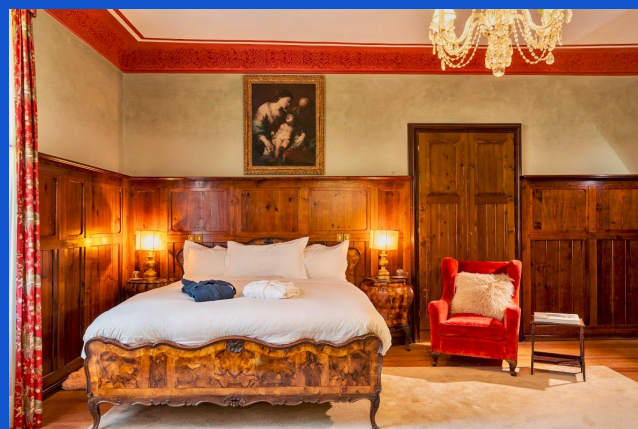

This wood-panelled master bedroom boasts dual-aspect alpine and polo yard views. Features include regal upholstery, Italian Renaissance antiques and a Mahogany boudoir table.

A sitting-room adjoins this bedroom, with a sofa-bed and wash basin. This room can accommodate two children or serve as a separate walk-in dressing room or boudoir. Both rooms are conveniently connected by an en-suite bathroom featuring opulent washbasin- and bath-tap fittings.

This suite consists of:

- 1 master bedroom
- 1 living room
- 1 bathroom

Blue Suite - 60 mq (645 sq.ft)

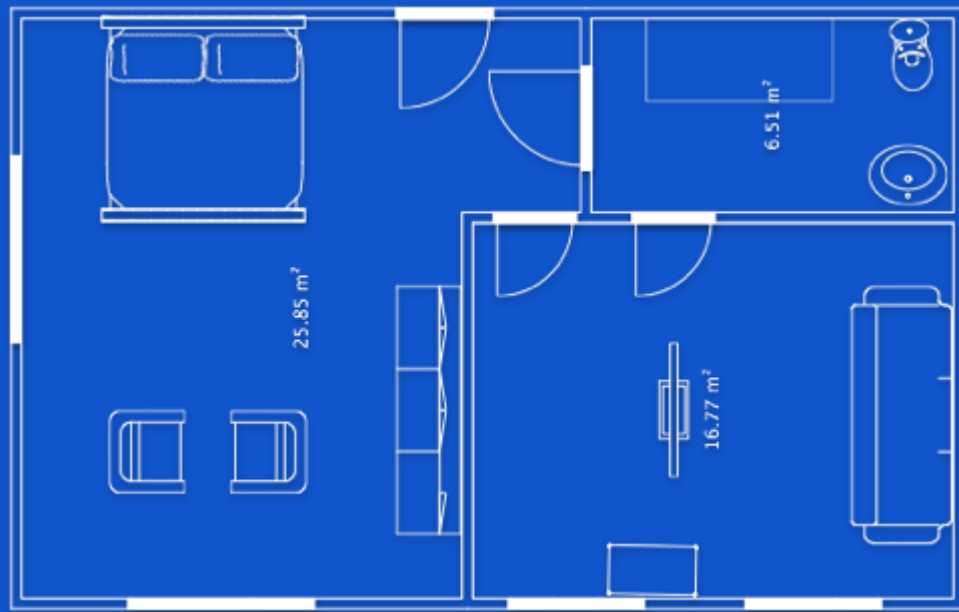

Valcastello's spacious Blue suite is conveniently located on the same level as the living rooms, on the Chalet's second floor.

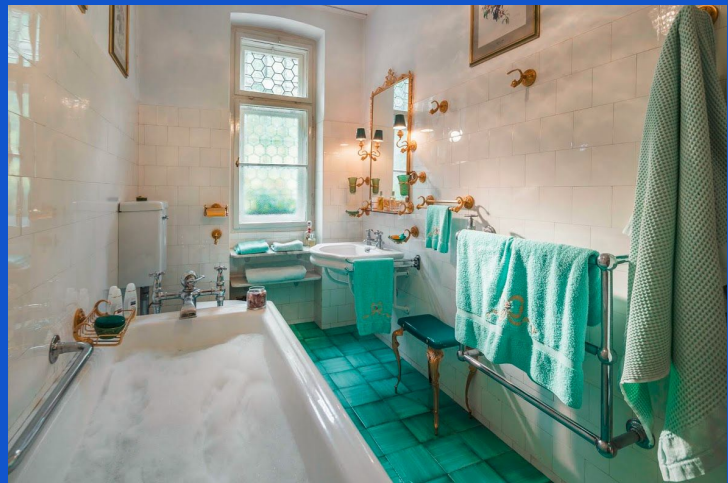

Being on the corner of the property, the Blue suite offers superb, dual-aspect alpine and polo yard views to the front and side. The sporty décor of this large bedroom includes a chic cut glass chandelier, racing red curtains and original horse-themed artwork adorning the walls. The ensuite bathroom features a large bath that is perfect for a long warm soak after a polo tournament on Valcastello's private polo field or a day's skiing.

A sitting-room adjoins this bedroom, with a sofa-bed. This room can accommodate two children or serve as a separate walk-in dressing room or boudoir.

This suite consists of:

- 1 master bedroom
- 1 living room
- 1 bathroom

Culinary Experience

The region is proudly home to some of Europe's finest restaurants and award-winning wine producers and currently holds 26 Michelin stars across 19 restaurants, making it Italy's most decorated province.

Our talented in-house chef, Luca Robledo, is a key reason why guests look forward to returning to Valcastello year after year:

My kitchen mixes history and tradition with a modern twist. In each of my courses there is a tale about food: the starting point always being genuine ingredients, I choose and combine them in order to create contrasts enhancing their taste. I select original products in order to value the work of producers and to ensure the highest quality to my clients. Passion, research and curiosity lead me to discover new recipes which I will bring to your table. My kitchen revolves around my clients: they taste, stand over the preparation, ask me the story of a course or want to find out more about an ingredient – and they will live an unforgettable experience.

Dining Room

All meals are served in the magnificent dining room, offering astonishing views of the Dolomites. The room's vast Aubusson wall tapestry and lofty windows provide a wow-factor alpine backdrop for a memorable formal dinner or special event.

Party Time!

The living and game rooms are located on the second floor and consists of a series of open-plan, wood-panelled rooms furnished with floor-to-ceiling handwoven tapestries, original oil paintings, chandeliers, Gio' Ponti vintage furniture, Peter Beard photos, Polo trophies, fine drapery and other historic artifacts.

Time to relax

Finnish sauna, a massage room, gym and premium quality toiletries are at disposal of all the guests to celebrate wellness rituals after a long skiing day.

The Polo Club

Valcastello Polo Club is the only permanent resort in the Italian Alps where polo-playing members and other guests can play Snow Polo throughout the winter, from December to March.

Our professional all-season Battros grass/snow polo arena field measures 110 metres x 60 metres.

The Valcastello Polo Club is open to all standards of polo player, from experienced polo-playing members and their guests, to novice riders wanting an introduction to the sport.

Different levels and types of chukkas can be organized ranging from fun, friendly chukkas to more serious practice chukkas for advanced player. Corporate tournaments may also be organized.

The Polo Club can provide guests with polo horses tended to by Valcastello dedicated stable manager.
