Sculpture workshop | “study of hands”

For the sculptor Marco Maschio, the hands are the truest and sincerest part of the human body, the only ones capable of grasping the ungraspable, the imponderable, the mystery of life. Each hand is unique, and so is the story it tells. It is important to highlight that Jacques Zwobada, in his artistic studies, also gave great emphasis to the hands and their symbolic value.

You will be provided with a rough relief of a hand, previously prepared by the artist. This relief will be made of Leccese stone, a material that symbolizes a strong cultural connection to the territory and is easy to work with. Under the guidance of the sculptor, you will recreate all the lines present on your hands onto this smooth model.

These lines are, in fact, unique, distinctive, and represent our individuality. The result will be a small work of art, a unique and unrepeatable microcosm that tells your story, your life.

At the end of this workshop, participants will be able to take home the artistic product of their work.

ZÉPHYR RESTAURANT

Nestled in an ancient olive grove that is surrounded by the 16th-century city walls of Lecce, Zéphyr Restaurant offers guests a unique culinary experience. It is the perfect venue for those in search of a fresh perspective on contemporary cuisine, with each dish making use of carefully selected, fresh ingredients from small local producers.

There are two cosy rooms that can sit around twenty guests, where the warmth of the local stone perfectly complements the lamps, mirrors and designer furnishings. The soft colours of the interior are punctuated by the green of the elegant Kentia palms that separate the tables from the yellow and dove-grey armchairs. The restaurant also has a separate bar with French doors, high ceilings and an illuminated counter that stands out against the creamy stone arches.

Zéphyr Restaurant's Wine List has been expertly curated by our Food & Beverage Manager. As well as local labels and a selection of wines from various Italian regions, it also has a range of French champagnes.
